Today I am a woman?

A Symposium on Bat Mitzvah for parents and youth professionals

You are SO invited to the Ma'yan Symposium on Bat Mitzvah, where Jewish teenage girls will tell you what Bat Mitzvah is really all about!

The symposiums will consist of three sessions:

- A panel presentation by Ma'yan's Research Training Interns—a diverse group of nine tri-state area Jewish high school girls.
- Facilitated discussions for participants, with separate tracks for parents and professionals.
- A closing panel where experts in congregational education, Jewish women's history, and girls' development will synthesize insights from the preceding sessions.
